

Leigh Nash

Bog

A cavity, the tooth black and then an empty socket. A lock-jawed long nap. Aged peat smokes the palate; preserves weather, weight, builds coal. Lathers, repeats.